

Bajacu Villa

Bajacu, or rising sun in 'island' language, was designed by world famous Mexican architect Marco Aldaco, and his exacting designer's eye and attention to detail can be seen at every turn. Situated on a south shore hilltop with a breath-taking 270 degree view of the sea and surrounded by lush tropical gardens, Bajacu also boasts the only fully private beach on the Turks & Caicos Islands.

Overview

Bajacu, or rising sun in 'island' language, was designed by world famous Mexican architect Marco Aldaco, and his exacting designer's eye and attention to detail can be seen at every turn. Situated on a south shore hilltop with a breath-taking 270 degree view of the sea and surrounded by lush tropical gardens, Bajacu also boasts the only fully private beach on the Turks & Caicos Islands.

The property has everything you could need in a home away from home, a home cinema is perfect for evening entertainment while a home office is available for those who need to catch up on emails. Four of the six ensuite bedrooms feature double beds, while two have two double beds. All bedrooms enjoy ocean views. For those who are keen to keep fit on holiday, a well equipped gym with spectacular ocean views is the perfect place to work out.

This exquisite expanse of white sand, complete with beach house, are nestled in a secluded bay lapped by warm, turquoise Caribbean waters. The clever use of luxurious natural materials throughout, along with a beautifully positioned infinity pool, ensures Bajacu's timeless design blends harmoniously with its incredible hilltop location. Bajacu - an unforgettable island retreat.
