Overview

Villa Emilia is a sophisticated property nestled in a slightly elevated position within a 3 villa complex, in the coastal area of Tourlos. It offers an enchanting view that stretches across the white houses of Mykonos Town and the endless blue sea. This newly-built (2017) chic vacation residence boasts a total living area of 383sqm and accommodates up to 16 guests.

The sugar-cube white exterior and local stone embodies the ultimate combination of Cycladic architecture and contemporary design. The main highlight is the private infinity pool, with dazzling topaz waters, that smoothly melt into the Aegean Sea. Unwind on a comfortable sunbed and marvel at the incredible scenery, lounge under the shaded pergola or savour a sea view lunch in the villa's shaded dining area.

Designed with utmost care for details, the refined interior is dominated by characteristic white surfaces. A palette of subtle greys, earthy hues and metallic textures has been used throughout, while the wood exposed ceilings and wood-accented floors warm the energy.

The 8 meticulously decorated bedrooms – 5 of which have their own private entrance – open up to a beautiful view. From the fully-equipped kitchen to the custom-made bathrooms, every room in this home radiates impeccable style.
