

Casa Korina

Overview

Casa Korina is a historic 18th-century villa in the heart of Reggello. The villa is surrounded by vineyards and idyllic countryside and boasts a garden area complete with two pools, one jacuzzi, and BBQ area for alfresco evenings with family and friends. With helipad and just 50 minutes from Florence, this estate is the perfect destination for those seeking a tranquil escape yet conveniently close to the capital of Tuscany.

Casa Korina is nestled amidst the canyons of Balze National Park and can accommodate 15 people in seven double bedrooms and one single bedroom. All bedrooms are air conditioned.

The building decor was designed to accommodate large families with a living with sofas and a spacious dining room. The kitchen, with granite countertops, has a pantry that houses the laundry area. Upstairs, in addition to the rooms, is a kid's playroom equipped with a sofa bed for 2 extra guests.

An alfresco dining table awaits for summer repasts, enclosed by a rustic brick bbq enclave. A wooden promenade is next to the two hexagonal pools, offering a sun-drenched sanctuary with a rejuvenating jacuzzi. Furthermore, a petite courtyard in the garden's nethermost tier caters to athletic enthusiasts, featuring a sports arena with volleyball and soccer nets.

The two hexagonal swimming pools measures 20 sqm and are 0,9 meters deep. A wooden patio hosts sun beds for all guests. The hot-tub pool measures 2 x 2 metres, and it's 0,7 meter deep, designed for 4 people.

For further entertainment is a grass field for soccer and volleyball.
