Overview

Set above the picturesque town of Positano, Villa Elara enjoys sweeping views across the Amalfi Coast, with the island of Capri visible on the horizon. Arranged over three floors, this five-bedroom villa offers a comfortable and well-appointed base for a stay on one of Italy's most beautiful coastlines, combining inviting interiors with generous outdoor spaces designed to make the most of the spectacular setting.

Inside, the living areas are welcoming and relaxed, with a comfortable lounge featuring a large sofa and smart TV. The dining area accommodates up to ten guests, while the fully equipped kitchen provides everything needed to prepare meals at home. The villa has five bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, air conditioning and Wi-Fi. Several bedrooms also benefit from private balconies, offering a lovely spot to take in the sea views and enjoy the peaceful surroundings.

Outside, the panoramic terrace is a highlight, providing plenty of space to relax, enjoy a meal or simply admire the coastline. Furnished for outdoor living, it is an inviting place to spend long afternoons in the sunshine or gather together in the evening as the light changes over the sea. The heated infinity pool makes the most of the setting, with uninterrupted views towards the coast and Capri creating a memorable backdrop for a leisurely swim or a relaxing day at the villa.

Although positioned away from the busiest part of Positano, Villa Elara is well placed for exploring the town, with its pastel-coloured buildings, boutiques, cafés and restaurants cascading down towards the beach. The centre is approximately a 20-minute drive away, making it easy to enjoy the local atmosphere before returning to the tranquillity of the villa. The wider Amalfi Coast offers plenty to discover, from the historic streets of Amalfi and the gardens of Ravello to scenic coastal drives and boat trips to Capri or Ischia.

Please note that access to the villa includes a pedestrian path and approximately 90 steps from the main gate, so it may not be suitable for guests with mobility difficulties.
