The villa is located close to the small town of Methoni in the Messinia region of mainland Greece. The region offers culture and activities including several ancient castles as well as several world class golf courses.

The interior of the villa has been thoughtfully decorated in neutral tones and minimalist design features as well as utilising natural materials such as wood and stone. Entering the villa, guests will notice the open plan yet cozy living room with fireplace and ample seating, large dining table and full kitchen, ideal for cooking delicious meals for the whole family.
