Overview

Elysium Villa is a magnificent five bedroom boutique hotel that is located on the beach near to Galle Fort. The property can be rented on an exclusive basis. Elysium is spread out over an acre and has direct beach access. The gardens have been elegantly landscaped with beautiful plants and a lotus pond. You can enjoy spending your day at the 20 metre infinity pool, relax in the spa or workout in the gym. Evenings can be spent in the home cinema room.

Elysium Villa comprises four very spacious and stylish suites, each housed in their own sizeable outbuilding with individual terraces and gardens. All the suites are air-conditioned and en-suite with twin. Each suite has seating areas, five hundred thread-count Egyptian bed linen, Super King size beds, Kemara Life bathroom amenities, hairdryers and plentiful wardrobe space. Two of the suites open out into the gardens overlooking the ocean and the other two are situated around a beautiful private courtyard garden close to the pool. In addition Elysium also has a spacious family suite with a large King size bed, 6 bunk beds as well as two en-suite bathrooms/showers and an external shower area.

Elysium Villa offers an abundance of living and dining space, both indoors and in the multiple exterior spaces in the gardens and by the pool and ocean. The elegant interiors are full of antiques and art from all over Asia and comprise part of the owners' vast collection.

The main building comprises a formal dining room and home cinema room on the ground floor and a vast formal living room upstairs, with an outdoor balcony, library and billiards table, surrounded by floor-to-ceiling windows which offer panoramic views of the Indian Ocean and glorious sunsets. An elegant poolside pavilion and bar provides an ideal place for meals, cocktails and quiet afternoon reading.

The covered beach pavilion, along with the beach patio, bar and beach deck, which directly overlook the ocean, provide the perfect venue for sunset cocktails, dining under the stars or simply basking in the rising and setting sun.

At Elysium, you have myriad dining options that range from having meals in the formal dining room or more casually in the outside pavilions, on the beach deck, by the pool or indeed anywhere in the gardens. Elysium is staffed with excellent chefs who combine to serve a range of Western and Asian dishes.
