Overview

Villa Elvine is stylish and luxurious and is the perfect starting point for you to explore the cosmopolitan island of Mykonos. Located very close to Elia Beach, a stunning stretch of white sand with a fantastic selection of waterfront restaurants, this impressive property is the ideal choice for large groups and accommodates up to 14 guests in utter comfort.

Blending Cycladic-inspired architecture with contemporary details, Villa Elvine offers generous outdoor living with an infinity pool, high-quality lounge furniture, and a five-seat jacuzzi. Stonework features and thoughtful landscaping add to the overall design, which has clearly been planned with attention to detail.

Inside, the style leans toward minimal luxury, with soft Cycladic tones paired with modern materials, light textures, and a calming pastel palette. Most bedrooms come with private entrances and en-suite bathrooms, making the villa well-suited for groups who value comfort and privacy.

Guests can settle into an easy indoor–outdoor routine, from preparing drinks in the kitchen to relaxed meals under the dining pergola. For those wanting to keep fit on holiday, the villa also features a gym room with several machines. The villa’s elevated position provides panoramic views over the Aegean Sea, creating a scenic setting for downtime with family or friends.
