Overview

Mount Cinnamon Grenada is a unique eco-luxury boutique resort overlooking the stunning shores of the famous Grande Anse 2 mile beach close to the capital of St Georges. With bespoke artistry this property really does have its own luxury and elegant flair. A stay here will be memorable. relaxing and most certainly enjoyable!

A family owned property steeped in British Heritage, owned by Peter de Savary. The resort is collection of 28 luxury villas and suites, each individually designed and with its own veranda of sweeping views of natural, unspoiled beauty.

The resort is nestled into a hillside but its not far to reach the azure Caribbean shores! A short walk through a pretty floral adorned path leads you to their beachside cabana where you can enjoy delicious food, a massage under the palms leaves you pampered, or a a chilled afternoon on a beach lounger or hammock under the sun. Enjoy yoga or stand up paddle boarding on the calm seas.

Grenada is known as the Eastern Caribbeans dive capital and the resort has its own dive shop on site, Dive Grenada , one of our directors learnt to dive personally with them! Take a short boat trip to one of the many dive sites, the famous underwater sculpture park, or take a dip and have a snorkel!

In addition to the Beach Cabana, the resort also has it fine dining restaurant, Savvys, an open air clubhouse restaurant with stunning sea views and delicious cusine. Open their Dinner menu here for a taste!

From Savvy's open-air clubhouse restaurant marvelling at the expansive sea view to a relaxed lunch directly on Grand Anse Beach at our Beach Cabana, take your palette on an epicurean journey with our exquisite island cuisine in an ambiance that will surely delight all of your senses.

Accommodation options range from One Bedroom Suites to One, two and three bedroom villas. The Cinnamon Heights Villa offers it own private pool and is 6,000 sqft.

Each suite or villa is an individual unit enjoying privacy and space. Furnished in a ‘colourful’ colonial style and retaining a Caribbean influence and ambiance with a modern twist. Soft furnishings are bright and colourful which serve to enhance the abundance of colours of the tropical gardens.
