Overview

Angelique is a modern, luxury four bedroom villa in the enviable location on the quiet edge of St. Jean. The style is pure St. Barth chic, with flourishes of celestial bliss.

Villa Angelique has four equal-size bedrooms making it well suited for families with grown children or groups of friends to share.

The main house has a welcoming living area and is furnished mostly in white. This living space opens onto a gourmet kitchen and a beautiful sun deck. The kitchen features a breakfast bar directly overlooking the pool and terrace. The infinity pool is located on the other side of the long deck and you can enjoy the views over St. Jean Bay even while taking a refreshing swim.

The bedrooms are located in separate cottages, so you can enjoy a level of privacy. Two of the bedrooms share a cottage near the main pavilion and can be connected. A third is in its own cottage nearby, and the fourth, officially the master bedroom, is in another cottage a level above, and has a sea view. Each bedroom has exotic wood and black and white photography.

A sun deck is a couple of steps from the pool and is the perfect place for you to relax. Below the deck is a fitness room equipped with a step machine, weights and a Kinesis system.
