Overview

Paradise Villa is a spectacular property, situated on Mykonos' breathtaking coast and boasting far-reaching views over the Aegean Sea. Draped dramatically across the cliffside, this spacious three-floor villa is one of the finest properties on the island.

The interior is a stylish combination of classical Greek minimalistic tones, brightened with small bursts of colour thanks to state-of-the-art lighting and beautiful local decorations. Guests enter on the second floor where there are several spacious communal rooms to take advantage of. The living room is the villa's central space with a satellite television and sound system for cosy movie nights, while the indoor dining area provides ample seating for dinner times. The well-equipped kitchen is a fabulous space, with funky lighting and high-quality amenities, ensuring you can whip up a feast with ease. Downstairs, six guestrooms await, while the top floor holds two master bedrooms as well as a dining area with bar and hammocks on the terrace.

Perhaps most impressive however is the outdoor space, which combines astounding views of the sea with beautiful private terraces for guests to enjoy. The heated infinity pool steals the show, complete with a furnished terrace, a chic swim-up bar and a BBQ area for al fresco meal times. On the top terrace and guests can discover a further private event space covering an impressive 200 square metres, with dazzling views. The villa also offers enhanced amenities within the private complex, including tennis courts and a gym.
