Overview

Mango Bay is a stunning seven-bedroom villa set in spectacular lush tropical gardens on a quiet beach beside the Caribbean Sea and has been described as one of the most beautiful houses in Barbados. This natural coral stone home was designed by Oliver Messel and has been lovingly maintained. The tasteful, formal living room flows on to a gracious patio, inviting guests to linger over breathtaking views of the tropical gardens and the Caribbean Sea beyond.

Paths lead to the charming dining gazebo on the seaside and to a picturesque lily pond. Guests may also choose to dine in the elegant dining pavilion with its beautiful coral stone table which seats fourteen and overlooks the swimming pool and garden.

The master suite with its adjoining marble bathroom has two single beds which can be configured as a king, remote controlled air-conditioning and two telephone lines. There are three additional double bedrooms in the main house, all with en-suite bathrooms and are air-conditioned. A single bedroom is also available in the main wing and is perfect for a teenager or a nanny.

The enchanting cottage is set back on the extensive southern lawn and offers two double rooms which are fully air-conditioned. For quiet relaxation, the study houses a television, Cable TV, a DVD player, computer, printer, fax and an extensive library.

The highly capable staff, including night security, all contribute to a carefree holiday. Mango Bay is conveniently located in St. James, between Holetown and Speightstown, with the closest hotel being Royal Pavillon. Royal Westmoreland Golf and Country Club is just a five minutes drive away.

Mango Bay is the ultimate villa for a peaceful, relaxing and perfect Caribbean holiday - a stay here is truly an experience to be remembered and repeated!
