Overview

La Maison Michelle Barbados is a distinctive seven bedroom villa perched on Westmoreland Ridge on the Platinum Coast and has been designed to capture the cool Caribbean breeze and panoramic views.

Each of the seven themed suites have been individually designed and include the Ocean Suite, Safari Room, Glass & Mirror Room, Caribbean Room and Shell Room, located in the main house. There is a separate guest cottage with the Platinum Suite and Cosmo Suite. Three of the bedroom suites feature king-size beds the the other four can be configured as king or twin beds. All suites have en-suite bathrooms.

The entrance is on the first floor of the villa with a sparse entrance hall, elegant chandelier and wide open windows so guests are immediately enchanted by the views. This level features three of the bedrooms. To the left is the Glass & Mirror Room with black theme and mirrors. The Caribbean Room is situated to the right of this wing and has been colourfully decorated. Further to the right is the Master Bedroom (Shell Room) and has been decorated with neutral tones and furnishings adorned with shells. All three bedrooms offer sea views and private terraces.

Two further bedrooms are located on the lower level accessed via a three-way split staircase. The Ocean Room has the option of a king bed or twin beds. Just across the courtyard is the Safari Room featuring a large wardrobe painted with safari animals. The en-suite bathroom has an exposed natural piece of coral stone. This bedroom has a small terrace.

The courtyard also leads to the Media Room which is furnished with large comfy chairs, a large screen TV and is air-conditioned.

Through the tiled covered pathway is the open plan living room fully-equipped kitchen. The outdoor area is accessed directly from the living area and the split-level terrace is a great place to relax or for informal dining. Each side of the terrace houses a gazebo, great places for al fresco dining. The terrace and gazebos look out to the large infinity pool, sun terrace furnished with loungers and the incredible views beyond.

La Maison Michelle also has three rooftop terraces, with seating areas and are accessed via a spiral staircase from the courtyard.
