Overview

Nelson Gay, a family-friendly villa nestled on a pristine half-mile beach near Speightstown, Barbados, invites guests to indulge in six decades of charm and sophistication amidst 1.5 acres of lush gardens. Offering a sanctuary for swimmers and snorkelers, this villa is surrounded by inviting waters and a vibrant reef.

Originally built as the residence of a United States Ambassador in the 1950s, the elegant coral stone mansion exudes Palladian grandeur, highlighted by 14-foot ceilings in the living room. The pièce de résistance is a magnificent 50-foot pool adorned with Italian mosaic tiles depicting turtles and fish, symbolically beckoning guests to the sea.

Featuring an array of serene spaces and dining areas, including options for candlelit dinners, the villa boasts a predominantly white palette complemented by unique antiques. The sleeping quarters ensure comfort and tranquilly, offering plush beds and quality linens.

Guests can unwind in the elegant garden gazebo with a wet bar or enjoy privacy and sea views from two covered terraces. Family-friendly amenities, such as an open-air gym and pickleball court, add to the allure of this retreat.

Further outside is an additional charming chattel house with en suite bathrooms as well that can be rented for an additional cost to accommodate up to 18 guests.

The villa manager and their diligent staff are fully dedicated to your needs during your stay and will make your holiday truly relaxing, stress-free, and unforgettable with chef service. 3 meals per day, butler service for one butler and housekeeping service. All staffing is provided six days per week. Note: For groups of more than 12 people over the age of 12, an additional staff charge of US$750 per week will be added to your booking.
