Overview

Merlin Bay is a lovely Mediterranean style development on the beach on the west coast of Barbados. There is a large lagoon-style communal swimming pool, assigned parking and daily housekeeping; there is also round-the-clock management and security.

Secret Garden Villa is unique among its villas as it is a completely detached two-storey villa with its own private gated garden, ensuring maximum privacy. Situated on a low sea cliff with private stairs leading down to a stunning sheltered bay, it really is a stunning option for families or friends looking for a beachfront villa.

Secret Garden includes three very spacious air-conditioned bedrooms, ceiling fans and their own terraces. Each bedroom also has an en-suite bathroom with a shower. The master has a king bed, and the two other guest bedrooms have twin beds that can convert to king beds.

The villa has a tropical garden with a pool with sun loungers and a terrace for outdoor dining. Guests also have access to the pretty lagoon styled resort swimming pool with cool coral stone sun deck via the gate at the end of the garden. From the pool deck the secluded beach, with soft white sands and exceptional swimming and snorkeling is only steps away.

Secret Garden is really an excellent choice for groups that plan to entertain. The garden provides ample space for BBQing and lounging, there are two additional dining areas inside the villa including one in the coral stone fernery dedicated to entertaining with a sit up bar complete with sink, fridge and wine rack. The sunken living area is air conditioned but opens out completely to flow smoothly outside to the pool deck.

For those looking to venture out from this private oasis Speightstown is just a short drive north with many options of ocean front dining and casual chic beach bars, a lovely art gallery and even a local museum, while Holetown is to the south and a popular destination for those looking for chic bars and nightclubs. Water sports, golf and other island activities are available.
