

Villa Opal

Villa Opal is one of the finest villas to be found anywhere on the island of Kea, offering an upscale experience for guests wanting an unforgettable Greek getaway.

Overview

Designed in a modern style but with authentic touches, Villa Opalis is whitewashed in the traditional style, with stone accents and characterful wooden beams. Inside, the villa is calm and contemporary, with a minimalistic style utilising neutral tones. The villa's lounge is the central hub, with a large landscape window offering stunning sea views and plush furniture for relaxing. To the back of this large space is a bespoke dining table for up to twelve guests, while the villa's state-of-the-art kitchen is found close by for culinary convenience.

Villa Opal also offers several other leisure spaces, including an indoor fitness centre, a games room with table tennis, a home cinema room with a PS4 and DJ set, and a custom-built wine cellar for tasting sessions.

Outside, the villa is spread over a terraced estate, with a range of excellent amenities for you to enjoy. Aside from the beautifully-furnished terraces, you will find an organic garden, a BBQ and wood fire oven for al fresco dining, a tennis and basketball court for letting off some steam, and an impressive outdoor pool for a refreshing dip.

Accommodation

Villa Opal has five bedrooms, shared between the main villa and a guest house.

Main Villa

In the main villa, there are two double bedrooms connected by stairs, a twin bedroom and a master suite with en-suite. The main villa has several bathrooms for guests to use.

Guest House

In the guest house, there is one en-suite double bedroom, offering a more private experience.
