Overview

Villa Cocomaya is a stylish five-bedroom villa set within the prestigious Apes Hill Club in Barbados. Elevated above the island's west coast, the villa enjoys spectacular views across the 17th hole and out towards the Caribbean Sea, with sea views from every bedroom.

The interiors combine neutral tones with shades of blue, creating a calm and contemporary feel throughout. The spacious living area opens onto the covered terrace, while a formal dining room and fully equipped kitchen provide everything needed for relaxed meals or entertaining. All five bedrooms have private en-suite bathrooms, with the sea and golf course providing a beautiful backdrop.

Outside, a generous covered terrace overlooks the private infinity pool and surrounding landscape. There is plenty of space for al fresco dining and relaxing, while the gazebo provides a shaded spot for enjoying a drink or escaping the midday sun. The pool takes full advantage of the elevated position, with uninterrupted views towards the Caribbean.

As an Apes Hill guest, you have access to an impressive range of facilities, including the championship golf course, nine-hole short course, driving range and Performance Centre, as well as the gym, eight floodlit padel courts, two tennis courts and 12.5km of hiking and nature trails. Dining options include The 20th Hole and Noisy Cricket, with seasonal wellness, culinary, sporting and family activities also available.

As a guest, you'll also enjoy exclusive access to the OE Beach Club, where you can luxuriate in loungers and umbrellas, and relish delectable drinks and dishes from the beach bar & restaurant. The Guest Experience Lounge and concierge service are on hand throughout your stay.

Just seven minutes from Holetown, Cocomaya combines the privacy of a spacious villa with the extensive facilities of Apes Hill, making it an excellent choice for golfers, families and groups looking for an active or relaxing Barbados holiday.
