Overview

This first-floor luxury condominium is situated along Paynes Bay on the exclusive West Coast of Barbados, just south of the world-famous Sandy Lane Hotel. The cottage offers a peaceful retreat just minutes from the hustle and bustle of the trendiest bars, restaurants, and local amenities.

The cottage is equipped with a small kitchenette and living/dining area that can be accessed from the ground floor. It's an excellent option for visiting guests who require a little more privacy.

The stunning white sand beach and crystal clear waters of Paynes Bay are only a few footsteps away via a tranquil walkway and secure gate with key entry. Enjoy lazy days under the beach umbrellas, soaking up the rays and taking in the stunning sunsets while sipping sundowners before heading out to one of the many world class restaurants on the coast. Should you want to explore the island during the day, just reach out to our concierge team, who will be happy to assist you with whatever you need to ensure you experience the best the island has to offer.
