

Casamara - Overview

Casamara is an elegant five bedroom villa located in the residential community of Galley Bay Heights on the west coast of Antigua. The villa has 5000 square feet of living and entertaining space and is spread over two levels.

Casamara has five tastefully decorated bedrooms. Three bedrooms are located on the main level and two are located on the lower level. Four bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms and two bedrooms share a bathroom. Two of the bedrooms on the main level have king size beds and one has a queen size bed. The two bedrooms on the lower level share a bathroom and one has queen size bed and one has king size bed. All bedrooms are air-conditioned and have ceiling fans.

The living area is elegantly furnished and includes comfortable sofas set, armchairs, coffee table and bookshelves filled with different books. The dining room has a long wooden table with comfortable chairs for indoor dining. The open plan living area opens directly out onto the pool deck where you can enjoy the beautiful panoramic views. The pool deck also has a BBQ area and outdoor dining area.

The family/entertainment room is tastefully furnished with sofas, HD Television and coffee table and is air-conditioned.

Casamara is located in a quiet area of Galley Bay Heights with only a garden and palm trees in front of the villa.
