

Erithia - Overview

Villa Erithia is a stylish white-washed villa situated close to glamorous Porto Cervo. With the nearest beach a five-minute walk, and its very own outdoor saline pool, this is a truly excellent choice for a sophisticated Sardinian holiday.

Designed in an open-plan style, guests will delight in discovering that all bedrooms provide direct access to the terrace and garden. Communal spaces are light and airy, with classy tiled floors and a cool maritime colour scheme throughout, with elegant furnishings to match. The living room is an inviting space, with comfortable seating and a French door opening onto the terrace and the beautiful views that await. There is also a well-equipped kitchen with a six-range stove and access to the terrace for al fresco dining.

Outside, Villa Erithia enjoys beautiful views out to sea and benefits from meticulously-maintained grounds with lawns, terraces and plenty of space to relax. The main patio is an excellent space with wrought-iron furniture for meals or just relaxing. The main event is the villa's vibrant saline swimming pool, with far-reaching views over the bay.
