

Laluna Villas - Overview

Laluna Villas are nestled into a private hillside on one of Grenada's most secluded beaches and is the ultimate private paradise.

This lovely beach chic boutique resort offers an authentic Asian Spa, beachfront yoga pavilion, and thatched roof Italian restaurant, and is the most romantic in Grenada. A favorite of lovebirds desiring an intimate, romantic Caribbean escape, Laluna Resort is frequented by honeymooners, couples celebrating an anniversary or special occasion, those hosting a destination wedding or for families or larger groups who have the option to book the luxury villas.

Laluna has expanded its accommodation options in the form of two luxury villas, featured by The Villa Collection and designed for families, couples, groups, or those who enjoy entertaining. The spacious Grenada villas are built on a bluff above sea level and offer stylish surroundings, privacy, unobstructed sea views, and resort access. Each villa can accommodate up to ten guests but during certain times of the year, are able to book as three, four, or five bedrooms.

The villas were designed by a renowned architect who has maximised the villas sea front location with private infinity pools and large terraces – the perfect place to relax day or night and enjoy the panoramic views. Guests can enjoy dining al fresco and the outside dining table can comfortably seat up to 10 people. Each bespoke Italian designed kitchen is fully equipped and merges seamlessly with the open plan lounge – perfect for entertaining or just sharing happy moments with loved ones.

Views can also be enjoyed from inside the villas thanks to the floor to ceiling sliding doors that lead directly onto the spacious terrace and infinity swimming pool. The shaded area is furnished with comfy sofas, BBQ and dining table. For those special occasions, chefs and waiting staff can be arranged for an additional charge. Each of the five bedrooms has an en-suite with shower and is furnished with a king size bed.

Access to the beach at LaLuna is easy via the golf cart included in the rental.

All services offered to resort guests are accessible by villa guests including restaurant , bar & lounge, boutique, spa , gym , yoga center , concierge service , tennis court . The golf course is 5 minutes from the villas.
