

The Great House - Overview

The Great House is a magnificent colonial-style beachfront property and the epitome of a luxury Barbados villa holiday. The property can accommodate up to 30 guests spread over the main house, Hillaby House, The Carriage House and the two cottages. Each bedroom has ceiling fans, air-conditioning, a safe, and all of these sumptuous suites have either a private balcony or patio. The interiors are a calming neutral and pastel shades with wooden furnishings. Four bedrooms are found in The Great House, four in the Carriage House, two in Hillaby House and a further two in North Cottage and South Cottage.

The Great House is nestled in 2.5 acres of lush tropical gardens and 100m of prime beachfront. Days can be spent lazing by the pool or taking a refreshing dip in the cool Caribbean Sea. There is ample indoor and outdoor living areas.

An elegant winding staircase is the centre point of the airy entrance hall. There are several reception rooms and ample seating areas offering plush, beautifully upholstered sofas. The Great Bar leads directly out onto the infinity pool and a spacious terrace where you can relax and enjoy the surrounding views of the gardens and ocean. The fully-equipped kitchen has a range of appliances, but you are unlikely to set foot in the kitchen as The Great House has a full team of staff waiting to look after you.

The property has been tastefully decorated and offers a host of amenities including a tennis court and fully equipped gym. If you can tear yourself away from the luxurious surroundings, then the rates include access to a 33-foot luxury pleasure boat and a 15-foot speedboat, which are manned by the villa's boatman.

A large team of staff are on hand to ensure you have a memorable and relaxing holiday and include an Operations director, Villa Manager, four butlers, four housekeepers, two laundry staff, two chefs, a kitchen assistant, four gardeners and four security guards.
