

Villa Jasmine - Overview

The exotic Villa Jasmine sleeps 10 people, and is set in an exclusive gated community on Sunset Island in Miami Beach, Florida.

This wonderfully grand waterside property is built in a Moorish style, and influenced inside by Moroccan and Indian styles with lanterns, mosaics and a fountain court which opens up from the airy living room. The overall impression is one of exotic luxury – and comes with beautiful views of the Miami skyline and the sunset.

Villa Jasmine offers a total area of 22,100 sq ft and was once owned by Enrique Inglesias. The inside is open-plan with modern furnishings. There's a fully equipped and spacious kitchen, separate dining area, a home theatre, indoor bar, lounge and office.

The six bedrooms feature king-size beds and four have en-suite bathrooms. The bedrooms are minimalist in style and furnished to a high standard.

Outside are 2 BBQ areas, two Jacuzzi's, a 15 metre swimming pool – perfect for cooling off and enjoying the views.
